LOCAL JOTTINGS.

The next holiday will be Labor Day, the first Monday in September.

The regular monthly meeting of Excelsior Hose Co. No. 3, was held last evening.

Samuel Peloubet has furnished new drinking-cups for the fountain at the Centre free of charge.

The Bloomfield Building and Loan Association will meet next Monday evening at 27 Broad Street.

Work on the new addition to the Centre Primary School on Liberty Street was begun last Monday.

Louis, Bruno, and William Hartman have gone on a fishing trip through western Massachusetts.

Hubert J. Ashley will no doubt be appointed Superintendent of Fire Alarm in place of W. S. Cooper, resigned.

One-half million dollars is estimated to be the amount of money in circulation in the business circle of this town.

The Morris Canal Company will build a yard at Speedwell Lake, the present terminus of the Rockaway Valley Railroad.

Brookdale Lodge, Order of Good Templars, accompanied by Orange Lodge, held their annual picnic at Hanover Neck on Tuesday.

The daughter of Mrs. Amanda Grimm of Spring Street was bitten on the arm by a vicious dog on Monday. The dog was killed shortly afterward.

Attention is called to the great reduction in prices at W. V. Snyder & Co. A removal sale will begin on August 8. Read their advertisement on page 8.

A grand fair will be held in the new Church of the Sacred Heart in September. It will probably be the largest affair of its kind ever held in Bloomfield.

Gertrude, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCormick, died on Tuesday morning. The funeral took place on Wednesday. Interment was made at Milburn.

A number of guests witnessed the development of a night-blooming cereus at the residence of Mrs. E. F. Baldwin on Franklin Street last Friday night. The plant had ten flowers.

Woodside Council, Royal Arcanum, excursion to Greenwood Lake on Tuesday was well attended. Five cars were filled with friends from Woodside, Scho, Bloomfield and Montclair.

Next Tuesday will be business men's holiday, and all the stores will be closed. The fire-alarm bell will ring "7-7-7" early in the morning to remind the public that the Truck Company's excursion takes place that day.

The friends and members of the German Presbyterian Sunday-school will meet at the church on Park Avenue next Thursday morning at nine o'clock. Wagons will be in waiting to take them to Dixon's Grove, Hanover Neck.

Mrs. Kate, wife of Richard Warnasch, died at her residence No. 365 Broad Street on Monday morning after a short illness, aged twenty-four years. Funeral services were held on Wednesday. Interment was made in Bloomfield Cemetery.

A late order on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad employees' bulletin is to the effect that all brakemen when about to call out the name of a station shall enter the car, close the door, and walk to the fourth seat from the end and then call out the stopping place.

The Bloomfield and Montclair Crystal Ice Company are about to have a new plant. It is said that Powers's old mill on Glenwood Avenue will be the works, and that the present factory on Newark Avenue will be abandoned. It is also said that the new plant will have a capacity of fifty tons a day.

A special meeting of the Truck Company was held on Tuesday, at which the coming excursion was discussed at length. Committees were appointed to sell tickets at the different stations. A large number of tickets have already been sold, and the excursion promises to be a grand success. The train will leave the Belleville Avenue station of the Greenwood Lake Railroad at 8:38 A. M.

An exciting runaway accident occurred on Wednesday afternoon at half-past six o'clock. William F. Haviland's horse became frightened at a passing horse-car near Chas. W. Martin's store and ran up Broad Street. In crossing the car-tracks the forward axle broke and the wagon dragged on the ground. This frightened the horse still more. Albert Sigler, who was driving, finally brought the horse to a standstill on the lawn in front of the Seminary.

Base-Ball Notes.

The Bloomfield Base-ball Club will cross bats with the T. A. B. S. of Belleville on the grounds of the latter to-day.

The junior team of the Orange Valley Y. M. C. A. would like to hear from the Bloomfield B. B. C. Please address V. D. Baldwin, 240 Main Street, Orange.

The Montclair B. B. C. journeyed to Rosville last Saturday and crossed bats with the Ironsides of that place. The latter may deserve the name they bear, but the umpire should be called from gall.

His decisions were simply awful, and had he been officiating at a game in Belleville instead of Rosville no doubt he would have been mobbed by the crowd. As it was, however, he was hissed unmercifully by the fair-minded spectators.

The Ironsides have won a majority of games played this year on their own grounds, and they should have won them, especially when the umpire hails from Rosville. Away from home they could not "beat a carpet." The score was 2 to 1 in favor of the Ironsides.

The Second Ward Athletics played their first game of ball last Saturday and defeated the strong club of T. Onkes & Co.'s; score 22 to 5. The pitching of Berstetcher was excellent. He had the heavy sluggers completely at his mercy and succeeded in holding them down to three hits.

The batting of the Athletics was terrific. They pounded the gum drops, railroad curves, and Canal Street twisters of three twirlers all over the field.

M. N. Higgins will umpire the series of three games between the Ironsides and Red Stockings for the championship of Newark. Mr. Higgins is the squarrest umpire in amateur circles.

Don't miss the grand entertainment at the Catholic Union Hall next Thursday night, August 11. Come in thousands.—Advt.
